

Step 10

Writing Great Speeches

Wedding speeches are another traditional highlight of a wedding day, offering a chance to share your love, your stories, and your well-wishes. You can use this page to plan who will speak, list things that you might want them to say, or avoid, and help them write a speech which is unforgettable.

Things To Consider

Your speech is a moment to share your heart with those who matter most. By crafting a speech that's personal, thoughtful, and well-prepared, you can create a memory that will last a lifetime. Feel free to add personal flair and humour, but keep it all in good taste. If you want help planning, and presenting a speech, feel free to reach out for help.
